BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CONGREGATION

On 8th Sep.1980 Bp.Clemens Thottungal CMI the first Bishop of Sagar instituted the pious union of 'Sisters of Jesus'. The recruitment of candidates to the new congregation was done by Co-Founder Rev.Fr.Alex Ukken CMI. He recruited the first seven batches with the help of the Congregations of CMI, FCC and OSB. The first 9 members came from different Syro-Malabar dioceses of Kerala. On 14th Aug 1980 the first batch candidates reached at Vidisha, Sagar. The first nine batches were formed by the able guidance of the fathers of CMI Congregation and sisters from CMC, FCC, CSC and CHF Congregations till 1992. The first members committed themselves to a life of renunciation through religious promise in the pious union of Sisters of Jesus on 15th August 1983. Bp.Clemens framed the rules for the new Congregation with the help of Fr.Alex Ukken CMI and the then director Fr.Jose Paul Eduthan CMI. After the retirement of Bp.Clemens, on 22nd February 1987

Bp.Joseph Pastor Neelankavil CMI was ordained the Bishop of Sagar. On 1st January 1990 Rt.Rev.Joseph Pastor Neelankavil erected by a decree (No.057/15/780/90) the pious union of the Sisters of Jesus as a Religious Congregation of eparchial rite of the Syro-Malabar Church. Administration of the Congregation was carried out by the directors under the guidance of Bp.Clemens , the founder and later under the guidance of Bp.Joseph Pastor Neelankavil. After the perpetual profession of the first batch sisters in 1989 the charge of formation of aspirants and postulants were entrusted to the sisters. On 15th September 1991 Rt. Rev. Bp. Clemens the founder breathed his last in Carmel Ashram, Sagar and his funeral was on 18th September. The first General Synaxis was conducted from 3rd to 5th October 1991 and Rev Sr.Ancy Mathew was elected the first Superior General of the Congregation. Jesubhavan, the Mother House of the Congregation is situated 8km away from Sagar city in the village Gadoli Khurd on the Bina-Khurai road.It was constructed in the year 1981 under the supervision of late Rev Fr.Jose Paul Eduthan

CMI the then director of SJ Congregation and it was functioning as the formation house for postulants, novices and juniors. After the first General Synaxis in 1991 and the erection of the novitiate house in Rehli, Jesubhavan has become the Generalate of the Congregation.

The Holy See directed His Eminence Cardinal Varkey Vithayathil CSSR Major Arch Bishop of the Syro-Malabar Church to appoint an Ecclesiastical Advisor to the Congregation of Sisters of Jesus to give guidance in their life and apostolate according to the Charism of Founder and in accordance with the statutes to uphold the rights of the eparchial bishop as well as the legitimate autonomy of the Congregation according to the provisions of the ecclesiastical law. On Feb. 6th 1998 Rev. Fr. Sebastian Puthenchirayil CST was appointed as Ecclesiastical Advisor and he guided the Congregation in true religious spirit. After the consecration of Bp. Anthony Chirayath as the Bishop of Sagar on 25th March 2006, Fr. Sebastian Puthenchirayil CST was relieved. Rev.Fr.Alex Ukken CMI the Co-Founder of the Congregation was called to eternal rest on 11th

June 2006. Fr. Jose Paul Eduthan CMI who was the first Director of the Congregation expired on 27th March 2013. The Congregation has nine Ordinary General Synaxes. The present Superior General of the Congregation is Rev.Sr.Alice Jacob.

The Congregation has passed 35 years of its foundation and at present there are 96 professed sisters out of which 81 are finally professed and 15 are temporarily professed. 32 formees are there in different stages of formation. There are 23 Jesubhavans involved in different ministries, 18 in the diocese of Sagar and other five in the dioceses of Ranchi, Jabalpur, Thrissur, Rome and Great Falls Billings in USA.
